

In every heart

I love the earth
deep in my heart
to be aware of all for a start.

You have the choice.
Listen to that voice!
Open your mind
and you will find,
that God is in every heart that love is in every part.

I love the sky
blue and white
wind and his voice
soft and its noise.

You have the choice.
Listen to that voice
only you can hear
takes away our fear
'cause God is in every part
'cause love is in every heart.

I love the water
clear and deep
the sea and rivers
sound to fall asleep.

You have the choice.
Listen to that voice!
Open your mind
and you will find,
that God is in every heart
that love is in every part.

I love the grass
so green and fresh
so tender to walk
my feet get wet.

You have the choice
listen to that voice
only you can hear
takes away our fear

.....

I love mankind
but for you it's hard,
if you presume
we live from God apart.

But I believe
like I want to love God is inside
of every heart.

Some call it love,
some call it grace,
some say it's God,
some say it's fate.

Some call it love,
some call it grace,
some say it's God,
some say it's fate.

Some call it love,
some call it grace,
some say it's God,
some say it's fate.

Some call it love,
some call it grace,
some say it's God,
some say it's fate.
